UM STUDENT INTERNS AT YOUTH COURT

MISSOULA—

Lewis Rusk of Missoula, a senior in social work at The University of Montana, is a counselor intern at Missoula Youth Court this semester.

In his post he provides individual counseling and mentoring for young people in the court's system. He also counsels families and serves as a liaison among the court, the youth and his or her family and other social service agencies, community professionals and resource providers.

Rusk's father is James E. Rusk.

The Cooperative Education Department at UM's Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs is administering Rusk's internship. The department, on campus since 1981, serves to bridge the gap between education and employment. It places 400-500 interns a year throughout Montana and the nation in more than 35 fields of employment.

Information about the internship program is available at (406) 243-4614.
